Locomotive Engineers.

The brotherhood of locomotive engineers of the United States convened in Denver yesterday morning, Chief Engineer Arthur presiding. After welcoming the delegates and assuring them of his belief in the satisfactory results of the present convention, and with what great pleasure he had watched the growth of the order since its organization and the results it had attained, Chief Arthur said:

"The present time represents the turning-point in the history of the order, for it has become apparent that a feeling essentially radical has crept in and taken possession of a few of our members. This is dangerous and must be suppressed, for, owing to this, statements seemingly contradictory have crept out and become public, which could never have happened had there been a oneness of thought and an honesty of purpose.
If a man's ability extends beyond that required by the brotherhood, then it becomes his duty to doff the begrimed habiliments of the mechanic and assume that position for which he is particularly gifted. To nurse one's dissatisfaction and scatter its seeds broadcast to take root in the imaginations of other men is sinful and blighting to character." He admonished the members to keep their personality intact and not to allow false gods to induce them to subscribe to laws, which as soon as passed, will make them cognizant of the necessity for repeal. He reiterated with emphasis his former statement that the organization is law-abiding, and said: "Today I clearly define our position toward railway corporations when I say that only as a last resort do we sanction a strike." In speaking of the growth of the order, he said the membership was $26,000, and that during the year just ended it has paid out to the widows and orphans of disabled members $306,000, making a total since its organization of $2,608,169. He thought it impossible to over-estimate the blessings and benefits deriv'd from the order, and he advised every man within the range of his voice to endeavor, at whatever sacrifice, to save a little of his earnings every year, if no more than $25. "The possession of property brings respect, and always adds to the comfort and power of workmen, besides gaining the esteem of all good citizens," Mr.
Arthur then thanked the citizens of Denver, the railway companies and others for their kindness, and expressed appreciation of the work of the officers and members of the ladies' auxiliary societies. No reference was made in the address to either the question of federation or the late Burlington strike, to the apparent disappointment of a number of the delegates.

As the Swedes Bathe.

Baths in Sweden are of a character to embarrass a modest American at the start, but they are described as highly enjoyable. A writer in the Boston Globe says: "Presenting myself at an office in Stockholm, a modest-looking female granted me a ticket for about 80 cents and consigned me to a creditable looking woman of thirty years of age or thereabouts. Passing in I was shown upstairs into a bath room, much larger than we are accustomed to. The female immediately began to draw water from two spigots into the larger tub, and mixed up the required degree of heat. I waited some time for her to retire, but it was soon apparent that she was not of a retiring disposition. So the customs of the country had to be observed. In a few minutes I was undergoing a scrubbing with soap in that sort of attire which I remembered to have been the domestic habits, upon my mother's knee, when on Saturday night, if not oftener, she deemed it a Christian duty to clean me, fill my ears with soap, tanalyze my hair, and finally discharge me yelling, but clean.
The Swedish female adhered to all her clothing, and with a scrubbing brush and soap traversed me like a lawyer in his replications. Having been soaped and scrubbed, I was turned over and rescrubbed. This, however, was only the commencement of the exercise. The next thing was to get some hemp, or shavings, and with clean water recommence the process. At last I was stood up in a state of Adam, wearing only a smile, and showered. I was at last encompassed with a long, warm towel, and after that rubbed again with a softer towel, and was then tucked up in my little bed—a bewildered but clean thing. The next process was to bring in some beer, and a few minutes later the lady appeared and handed some articles of clothing, and expressed a desire that I should get out, which she being unable to speak my vulgar tongue, emphasized by pointing to the ticket which had brought me there, which indicated that I was only to have that bath between certain hours.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator

One Dose

WORTH

100 Dollars

DEAR S. L. R.—FRIENDS: I consider one dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite; had the blues and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to blue mass, calomel, quinine and all remedies suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. R. did me more good than the $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Respectfully, T. C. MARKLEY.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid liver, and I have been entirely cured by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action as not to interfere, in the least, with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons' Liver Regulator.
